1970 KELLOGG'S FOOTBALL SET

The 1970 set was the first Kellogg's football issue. The set consists of 60 beautiful full-color cards with the fronts having a 3-D effect, while the backs have a biography of each player. The cards measure approximately 2 1/4" x 3 1/2". Players include Csonka, Dawson, Butkus, Alworth, Griese, Sayers, Unitas, Lilly, and O.J. Simpson plus many other stars of the early 1970s. The sets grade EM-NM.

Complete Set (60 Cards) $295.00

1985 McDONALD'S CHICAGO BEARS

This 32-card set featuring only Chicago Bears was a test issue by McDonald's and was available only in the Chicago area. The full-color cards measure approximately 4 1/2" x 5 7/8" and were originally issued with 3 different color tabs. The sets we have contain all yellow tabs which include a reference to the Super Bowl. Some of the players included from the Super Bowl-winning team are Walter Payton, Jim McMahon, "The Refrigerator" William Perry, Mike Singletary, Dan Hampton, Steve McMichael, Richard Dent, Coach Mike Ditka and Defensive Coordinator Buddy Ryan. All cards have the tabs intact and grade near mint to mint. Supplies are very limited.

Complete Set (32 cards) - $39.95

1977 McDONALDS SUPER BOWL POSTER

This 22"x33" full-color poster features Super Bowl XII. These posters were available at McDonalds in 1977. The poster depicts a painted image of the Vince Lombardi Trophy overlooking the streets of New Orleans with the Superdome in the background. On the bottom of the poster it lists the date and time Super Bowl XII was played in New Orleans. A nice highlight for any Super Bowl collector.
